BRYAN RECEIVES A VISIT FROM NEW PARTY LEADERS

BALTIMORE, Maryland, June 26.—One of the most sensational significant features of the tumultuous Democratic convention now in session here was the visit yesterday of Senator Murray Crane and Francis J. Heney of San Francisco to William J. Bryan. None of the trio would discuss the object of the visit, which lasted more than three-quarters of an hour, and was evidently most intensely earnest.

After the interview was over Mr. Crane looked relieved and Mr. Bryan greatly preoccupied. Heney declined to make any statement regarding his presence in Baltimore. This of course started innumerable reports and surmises, among which was one that Roosevelt was making overtures to Bryan. This was given considerable weight by the declaration of Medill McCormick, in Chicago, that the action of the Democratic convention in repudiating William J. Bryan, who has been leader of that party for so many years, removes the last possible objection to having Mr. Bryan run as the second man on the Progressive ticket headed by Mr. Roosevelt.

It was declared here last night that the Bryan men are still hoping that they will be able to place their leader on the committee on resolutions where he would be made chairman. This, however, is regarded as doubtful at best and there is not lacking a feeling that Bryan is to be beaten if possible by the conservative elements in the gathering.

The Clark candidacy is looming up more formidable than ever. Late last night a report gained circulation that Mayor Gaynor of New York is to be the second man on the ticket if Clark gains the nomination. This is now denied in the New York camp.

General Cabies.
PINEHURST, Georgia, June 26.—A negro woman was lynched by a mob here last night. She was accused of having stabbed her mistress and dragged the body into the woods to conceal it.

SANTA MONICA, California, June 26.—Councilman Walker was arrested here last night charged with having accepted a bribe in the matter of paving one of the principal streets of Santa Monica. He was released on bail.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The striking waiters whose efforts have embarrassed half of the larger restaurants and hotels in this city last night declared the strike off.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Refined sugar dropped ten points on the local market yesterday.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE SAID TO HAVE FOLLOWED ERUPTIONS

SEWARD (Alaska), June 11.—The Kodiak relief committee of Seward has issued an appeal to the mayors of all cities to send money to relieve the needs of the volcano sufferers. The committee is composed of Dr. Roullet, chairman; Dr. Daggett, secretary; Sydney Anderson, banker, treasurer; William Sumers, United States Marshal Isaac Evans and Father Vanderpool, Catholic priest. The committee expects that it will be called upon to care for many hundreds of destitute people. Money may be transferred by cable.

Seven Villages Destroyed.
SEWARD (Alaska), June 11.—A cannery tender from Uyak, on the Shelikof strait shore of Kodiak Island, brought word today that the people there are safe but it is thought seven fishing villages with a total population of 200 on the Alaska peninsula in the immediate vicinity of Katmai volcano were destroyed by the eruption of last Thursday.

The villages, whose inhabitants, mostly natives, are believed to have perished, were Cold Bay, Katmai, Kanatuk, Douglas, Savanooksy and Kamaganute.

The volcano has resumed its normal state and the atmosphere is clearing so that boats will be able to get into the stricken district with relief.

At Uyak the fall of ashes amounted to four inches. The people there are not suffering. This was one of the places on Kodiak Island where it was feared the greatest damage was done and the news from there gives hope that all the people on Kodiak Island are safe.

On some parts of the island the ashes are twenty feet deep. Vegetation and animal life have been killed and the wireless station at Kodiak destroyed. Conditions at Katmai must be terrible.

Governor Clark cabled to Washington today asking $100,000 from Congress for relief purposes in the stricken district.

VALLEJO, June 11.—The radio station at Kodiak, Alaska, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. The wireless operators are safe on the revenue cutter Manning. This is the gist of a message received at Mare Island today from the Manning.

The Manning reports that she will carry the operators until the arrival of the collier Nero, now in the northern waters with a party of wireless construction men from Mare Island. It is said that this party will rebuild the Kodiak station.

Horrors Are Related.
NARNEK, Bristol Bay (Alaska), June 14.—(Via Wireless to Cordova.)—Natives are flocking from the interior to the large cannery centers on the Bristol Bay side of the Alaska peninsula, bringing reports that many of their tribesmen perished in the mountains during the eruption of Katmai volcano last week. These reports are not given too much credence here, however, as the natives are greatly excited and are so terrified that they cannot give an intelligible account of their experiences during the eruption.

The natives, who are accompanied by their entire families, and are bringing as much of their belongings as they can carry in their canoes, declare that the Bristol Bay coast line is covered with from three to six inches of volcanic ashes and sand. Bristol Bay is on the windward side of the volcano, and the natives said that during the eruption they could see red streams of lava flowing down the west slope of the mountain.

Three inches of ash fell in Naknek village and no attempt has been made to operate the canneries since the eruption to allow the water to free itself of the volcanic material.

No word has been received here from the village on the strait side of the peninsula, which was the real danger zone, and the fate of the people there is still a matter of conjecture.
